

Beyond jargon: Reframing our communication on human rights

Tuesday 6 March 2018
1 p.m. – 3 p.m.,
room XXIII, Palais des Nations in Geneva

A human rights vision has shaped policies and laws over the past 70 years and helped improve the lives of millions of people.

Yet, that progress was not enough to prevent retrogression. In times of increased populism and scepticism, what can we do to make human rights popular again?

A conversation moderated by
Imogen Foulkes
BBC Correspondent in Geneva

Open to UN press corps and public registered at HRC, English only.

A snack will be served.
